

Reading people's email is no different than a post-office worker reading my paper mail. It is immoral and a violation of my civil liberties. Please, make the right decision and don't start reading emails.